

Twinning Declaration between the towns of Bad Hersfeld, Hesse, Germany and Malmesbury,
Wiltshire, Great Britain

The towns of Bad Hersfeld, Hesse, and Malmesbury, Wiltshire solemnly declare that they wish to remain united with one another in lasting partnership.

They pledge themselves to foster close friendly contact with one another to encourage the meeting of representatives of local authorities and administration of youth, of schools, of sports and of associations of cultural, religious and commercial life to interchange ideas and to promote the peace and well-being of their citizens.

They hope that mutual respect, fellow feeling and understanding might be so strengthened through these meetings that freedom, peace and tolerance be preserved forever.

It is the intention of both towns in this way to contribute to the unity of Europe and to the understanding between nations.

Dated this 8th day of May 2024 at Malmesbury in the County of Wiltshire.
